DRINKING WATER NOTICE

Tests show coliform bacteria in Tall Timber Lake Camp-Camper Sites PWS water

We routinely monitor for the presence of drinking water contaminants. We took four samples for coliform bacteria during June 2011. All four of those samples showed the presence of coliform bacteria. No more than 1 sample per month may show the presence of coliform bacteria during a month.

What should I do?

- You do not need to boil your water or take other corrective actions. However, if you have specific health concerns, consult your doctor. People with severely compromised immune systems, infants, and some elderly people may be at increased risk. These people should seek advice about drinking water from their health care providers.
- Total coliform bacteria are generally not harmful themselves. Usually, coliforms are a sign that there could be a problem with the system's treatment or distribution system.
- Coliforms are bacteria which are naturally present in the environment and are used as an indicator that other, potentially harmful, bacteria may be present. Coliforms were found in more samples than allowed and this was a warning of potential problems. Fecal coliform or E. coli, which are bacteria of greater concern, were not detected in the water.

What is being done?

We are still detecting coliform bacteria. We are investigating and taking the necessary steps to correct the problem as soon as possible.
