Mr. Dean Spradlin
Hale Chrome Service
2282 Albion Street
Toledo, Ohio 43606

Dear Mr. Spradlin:

Thank you for your May 25, 2007, response to my May 3, 2007, Notice of Violation letter. You sent me copies of the revised pages of your contingency plan. You also submitted sign in sheets from contingency plan training conducted on May 25, 2007. Employees were trained on all areas of the revised contingency plan. Lastly, you submitted five weeks worth of completed weekly inspections for both the hazardous waste storage area and the spill/emergency equipment.

The Ohio EPA also received a revised contingency plan as part of the requirement that updates are submitted to local authorities.

With the information submitted, Hale Chrome has abated all violations found during our April 27, 2007, compliance evaluation inspection as noted in my May 3, 2007, notice of violation letter.

The following violations were abated with this letter:

- 3. Personnel Training, OAC Rule 3745-65-16(A)(2):
- 4. Contingency Plan, OAC Rule 3745-65-54:
- 5. Weekly Inspections of Containers, OAC Rule 3745-66-74:

Previously abated:

- 1. Satellite Accumulation Area, OAC Rule 3745-52-34(C)(1)(b):
- 2. Container Management, OAC Rule 3745-66-73(A):
- 6. Used Oil Labeling, OAC 3745-279-22(C)
